Hewitt, John McKeon, Fmanuel B. Hart, Hubert O. Thompson, George H. Purser, John R. Fellowes and Sheriff Peter Bowe. This action was generally understood as shuttling off any chance of reconciliation with Taumany Hall

REGULAR REPORT OF PROCEEDINGS. DEBATE IN THE SENATE ON THE UTE AGREEMENT -THE ARMY APPROPRIATION BILL CONSIDERED IN THE HOUSE-EXCITING SCENE BETWEEN MR. SPARKS AND MR. CLYMER.

SENATE WASHINGTON, April 7, 1880. In the Senate to-day information was re-ceived that the Vice-President would be absent some days and the Hon. Allen G. Thurman (Dem. Ohio), was chosen to preside during such absence of the Vice-from Nebraska to the Ponca Reservation, Dakota Territory. Adopted, Mr. DAWES (Rep. Mass.) subsequently moved to reconsider the vote protesting against giving the lands belonging to the Ponces to any other tribe.

Mr. SAUNDERS said the Poncas were away from the old reservation, the Santees were friendly with the Sioux and their removal to the Ponca Reservation was desired by the monit of Nebraska.
Mr. KIRKWOOD (Rep., Iowa) said the published reports of the loss of life among the Poncas were exaggerated. The lands to which the Poncas were removed were very fertile and the climate was favorable. He thought the Senater from Massachusetts (Mr. Dawes) was unduly excited about the matter.
Mr. DAWES said he was not excited at all. He spoke of the peaceable record of the Poncas, and asserted that they had dwindred from SOO to 400 since their rem via'.
Mr. PADDOCK (Rep., Neb.) said that the resolution

Mr. PADDOCK (Rep., Neb.) said that the resoluti n and not provide for the removal consent," in connection by their consent.

Mr. DAWES remarked that "consent," in connection with the treatment of Indians, always megat dumb, unreasting submission to superfor power.

The resolution to reconsider went over.

Mr. SAULSBURY (Dem., Del) gave notice that to morrow he would call up the report on the Kallogg shofferic case.

Mr. HOAR (Rep., Mass.) hoped that, in view of the fact that the printed evidence had but yesterday cen placed on the Senators' desks, more time would be allowed.

Rep., Iowa) moved to amend so that no money shall be paid the Wh to filter Utes until the guilty Indians are in fact "surren leved or apprehended."

the guilty Indians are in fact "surren leved or apprehended."

Mr. INGALLS (Rex., Kas.) said the agreement bound the Utes to do all in their power to captare and surrender these men. This was all that could be asked.

Mr. KIRKWOOD said be would not treat with these Indians mill the guilty Indians were given up. He would first sen i the Army of the United States there and with the Army of the United States there and with the Army of the United States there and with the Army of the United States there and with the Army of the United States there and with the United States there and with the Mr. WHYTE (Dem., Mg.) spoke of the necessity of coming to some settled policy of treating the Indians—a policy that would not be changed on the discovery of a mine or the building of a railway.

Mr. BECK (Dem., Ky.) was opposed to making treaties with the Indians. He thought that the War Department should have control of the Indian military officers; then they would not steal and induke in fraid, whereas it was now the exception for an Indian Agent to deal honestly with the Indians.

Mr. BURNSHDE (Rep., R. I.) concurred with Mr. Reek, Mr. INGALLS (Rep., Ms.) thought the present bill the best that earld be done under the circumstances.

Mr. BRUCE (Rep., Ms.) Jayored the pending measure.

Mr. McMillan (Rep., Minn.) advocated Mr. Kirk-wood's amendment.
Mr. KirkWOOD said he was willing to amend his amendment so as to provide that the agreement soad not take effect until the guilty men are shown to be dead or to have left the United States. Mr. Kirkwood asked what had been done by Congress to preven the frauds complained of. Men of experience and ability could not be induced to go out with their families on the plains and spend their lives in that inhospitable region for $1,500 a year. If we want good men as agents we unust pay enough to get them.

Mr. MORGAN (bem., Ala.) said it seemed to him that the bill was merely a plan to pay enough to the vietnus of the outbreak to satisfy them, and to settle with the Indians so as to satisfy them, and thus by defeating justice, apparently vindicate the polley of the Secretary of the Interior.

Mr. Kirkwood's amendment, modified by him as abeve indicated, was adopted—yeas, 35; nays, 11.

Mr. DAWES offered an amendment providing that the $25,000 set apart by the agreement of 1874, shall be expended in the practical industrial education of the youth of the Utes.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. In the House to-day bills were reported from jected by a vote of SS to 97.

Mr. SPARKS (Dom., 1ii.) said that he would demand a vote in the House.

The CHAIR stated that the amendment baving been rejected, would not be reported to the House, and no vote comis be had upon it unless it was permitted by the gentleman in charge of the bill (Mr. Cigner).

Mr. SPARKS said that the amendment having come from the Committee on Mintary Alfairs, he thought that the gentleman from Pennsylvania would yield to allow a vote upon it.

Mr. CLYMER (Dom., Penn.)—I have received no such request from that Committee, but when submitted to me I will consider it.

Mr. SPARKS (annid a great deal of confusion) infimated that Mr. Clymer had been buildozed and enjoted, and said, excitedly, "I declare that it comes from that committee, and I am authorized to demand that thing, and the gentleman knows it and cannot deny it."

Mr. CLYMER—I do not propose that the gentleman shall come here and assert that which does not exist. There has been no request to me for the ayes and mays in the House.

Shint come are and assert time which ages and mays in the House.

Mr. SPARKS (advancing in a threatening manner toward Mr. Clymer)—If the gentleman from Pennsylvana Insimuates that that does not come from the Committee on Military Affairs he lies, and that is all there is about it. (Great confusion and excitement, which the Chair titled in van to allay.

Mr. CLYMER.—On! you cannot insult me.

After quiet had been somewhat restored, Mr. CONGER (Rep., Mich.) demanded that the objectionable words should be read at the Clerk's desk, and this having been done, the committee rose and reported the words to the House.

On motion of Mr. ATKINS (Dem., Tepn.) Mr. Sparks was permitted to make an explanation. He said that understanding that the gentleman had insinuated that he was trying to decive and cheat the House, and falsify the acts of the committee, he had used the language which he did. If he had mistaken the gentleman from Pennsylvania, if that gentleman had not insinuated that he committee, the language was unwarranted and he would like to recall it. But if the gentleman had so insinuated, no power under the sun could get him to withdraw it.

Mr. CLYMER said that certainly no such construction would like to recall it. But if the gentleman had so insimated, no power under the sun could get him to withdraw it.

Mr. CLYMER said that certainly no such construction as the gentleman from Illinois imagined it capable of, could be put upon his language. "I felt," he said, "that when the excitement of the moment was over, when the gratieman had read what I really said, he would do what he has done-come here as a man of honor, and make that reparation which was demanded under the circumstances. He has done it, and I am content,"

Mr. CONGER (Rep., Mich.) demanded that the Speaker should decide whether the language used by Mr. Sparks was usparliamentary.

The SPEAKER said that if he were called upon to role upon the language, he would declare it unparliamentary; but he recognized the fact that an amicable adjustment had been arrived at.

Mr. RUSSELL (Rep., N. C.) offered a resolution declaring it 1) be the sense of the House that Mr. Sparks be under censure of the House for unparliamentary language in debate and a gross violation of the rules of the House.

Mr. SPARKS said that he had before stated that he language in debate and a gross violation of the rules of the House.

Mr. SPARKS said that he had before stated that he was brave enough on any occasion to put himself right. The question occurred as to whether his language was competent under any circumstances. He thought not; and thinking not, he was brave enough to withdraw it.

Mr. RUSSELL thereupon withdrew his resolution, and the House resumed, in Committee of the Whole, consideration of the Army Appropriation bill.

The proviso was stricken out which provides that under certain circumstances commutation shall be paid to enlisted men in lieu of rations.

The amendment was adopted authorizing the President, on request of any college or institution of learning, to detail an officer on the retired list to act as president, superintendent, or professor thereof, who may receive from the institution the difference between his retired and fall pay.

At the end of the bill Mr. SPARKS, under direction of the Military Committee, offered the following as an additional section:

"No money appropriated in this act is appropriated except.] be rather for the substance continent trave.

The Senate Exodus Committee examined Andrew Carrie, Mayor of Shroveport, La., to day Mayor Carrie said tunt with tew exceptions the relations between the whites and blacks to the violety of Shreveport, were of a most friendis character. The colored people are renewing the usual Spring contracts and settling down to work and the exodus so far, from that section, does not amount to one per cent of the colored people are renewing the usual Spring contracts and settling down to work and the exodus so far, from that section, does not amount to one per cent of the colored peoplation. The wildes said the whites and blacks in Condo Parish—in which the exoport is located—subject all the the privilege of voting. He knew of no dental of political rights to the blacks, except in some instances where negroes were turned away from the polis on account of mistakes of their own in not registering properly. Some would register under their full names and attempt to vote under a nekanane, which, of course, could not be permitted under the law. He never knew of any movement to drive negroes away from the polls, but knew of one election, in 1868, when the whites made an effort to induce the blacks to vote and failed, because it was an understood thing with the blacks not to go to the polls, and then to claim to have been kept away by intimidation. He said that in 1876, under the Deidecratic administration of affaire, the colored people had received school privileges equal to those of the whites, so far as the limited aum appropriated would permit. Without closins the examination of the witness, the committee adjourned until to-morrow. The hearing both received school privileges equal to the collection of revenue from customs, was continue includly makes it a crime to buy cheap, on the other hand the effect of the proposed measure (which is to have imported goods taxed on their market value in the United States) would be to make fraudulent undervaluation and the humaning of toya and straightforward merekants equally impossible. Mr. Thomas Barbour, of Barbour Branciers, of New-York, manufacturers and importers of linen thread, followed and pointed out the fentiors most objectionable in the present system of collection of the customs dies, Mr. D. C. Robbus, of New-York, manufacturer and importer of drugs, made an elaborate argument in favor of the ad vidorem system, based upon the value of the goods in the home markets at the time of their importation. Mr. Jackson E. Schaller, charman of the delegation, followed, and adversed humbelt to renight desire to ask. Representative Garrield called his aftertion to that provision of the bill which cives the Geverament the outling assessment the duties upon the importer's valuation, or—if it followed an undervaluation—of taking the goods on its own account and seiling them at anothe auction, and suggested that it might make the Government a retail decider or a junk show; that the Custom House we reserve so might, in course of time here to diffice with odes and ends of imported goods which had been setzed in this minner. To this Mr. Scimitz resided that the cases would be wholly exceptional where and ervaluations would be wholly exceptional where accument would never experience any difficulty in selling goods so under appraised as to warrant their seizure. connect would never experience any difficulty in selling goods so under appraised as towarrant their seizure. At the conclusion of the hearing it was amounted that after the views of the Freasury Department are received and printed the committee will take the subject and er advisement. The drift of opinion so far as it found attression among the members of the committee seemed to be in favor of some such changes as those proposed by the bill.

The House Committee on Naval Affairs agreed to day to report favorably to the House the bill for the relief of Admiral A. H. Foot. The bill provides for the cancellation of certain balances against him upon his books, the facts showing that the money had been expended for the benefit of the Government.

THE COURTS:

CORNELIUS J. VANDERBILT'S FUND. A CHANGE OF TRUSTEES DENIED-SCOTT LORD RE-BUKED.

A decision of the Supreme Court, General Term, was handed down yesterday, affirming the order of Justice Denohue refusing to grant the application of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt to have a person appointed in pigce of William H. Vanderbilt as trustee of a fund of about $400,000, which was created by William H. Van-derbilt May 12, 1879, soon after the withdrawal of the contest of Commodore Vanderbilt's will. The General Term gives two reasons for affirming Justice Donohue's order. First, the Court had no power to grant the application. Such action on the part of the Court would be making a new contract. Secondly, the order of the Court below was right because granting was presented to him or the Court. On the contrary, the reasons presented were the best evidence of the propriety of the refusal. They were in part at least the same that led to the creation of the trust, to wir, the strong desire on the part of the beneficiary to expose his means of certain support to the uncertain exigencies of business and probably speculative enterprises. To protect him against his own possible rashness or folly was the judicious purpose of the trust; and to compel its donor, atmost immediately after the creation, to bre k it up and substitute for it the exposure and vier-situdes of business would be something that no Court having lower, coupled with common sense, would consent to do. It seems almost incredible that counsel could be found expable of nevislog souch an application. Having unither law nor facts to justify it, the application deserves nothing but severe reduke. The order is affirmed with costs and disbursements against the appellant."

Scott Lord was the counsel for Cornel as J. Vanderblit; Henry H. Anderson for William H. Vanderblit.

If the application is sought to be sustained on the ground that the plaintiffs have a trade-mark in the words 'Irylog's Works,' the affiliavits fail to satisfy me that such a chain can be successfully maintained. Indeed, if the trassuming of the learned counsel for the plaintiff on this motion is sound, the obtaining of a copyright under the United States statutes is a matter of secondary importance to the establishment of the right to a trade-mark, and a trade-mark once established in an author's mane may enable his representatives or contained to copy the exclusive right to print and publish has not so common law anthors are vested with an exclusive right to print, reprint, publish and vend the productions of an author, and that this right has not been divested by the statutes in relation to copyright, I deem.
